

Phillip B. Robinette, Certified Trainer

Detective Phillip B. Robinette is a distinguished retiree from the Tennessee Army National Guard. He has traveled internationally with the military, including in Central and South America and Mexico. He worked with the US Border Patrol searching for drug lords and with the DEA and US Customs gathering and analyzing intelligence.

A former detective with the Rogersville Police Department, Robinette graduated from the Law Enforcement Executive Development and the Leadership role for Sheriffs and Police Chiefs at the Center for Exploited and Missing Children.

He has served in numerous law enforcement executive positions, namely, as a Chief of Police in Togiak, AK; England, AR; Bean Station, TN and Etowah, TN.

As a recipient of numerous awards, Robinette has been bestowed with noteworthy commendations to include:

- Armed Forces Reserves Medal
- Army Achievement Medal
- Tennessee Army National Guard Components Achievement Medal
- National Defense Service Medal
- Army Reserve Oversea Service Medal

His educational endeavors are in the science and criminal justice disciplines, reflecting his passion to the law enforcement profession. His credentials are as follows:

- Bachelor of Science Biology with minor in Chemistry, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee
- Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice Administration, Ashworth University, Norcross, Georgia
- Associate of Science in Criminal Justice, Ashworth University, Norcross Georgia

- Police Officer Development Instructor, Walters State Community College, Morristown, Tennessee
- Certified Crime Lab Technician, Walters State Community College, Morristown, Tennessee
- Peace Officers Standards Training, Nashville, TN
- FBI National Academy, Quantico, VA

Robinette's professional memberships include: Tennessee Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council • Tennessee Joint Terrorism Task Force • FBINA National Association • Tennessee FBINA Chapter • Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police • National Association of Police Chiefs • International Association of Arson Investigators • International Crime Scene Investigators Association • National Association of Fire Investigators • Tennessee District Attorney's Anti-Meth Task Force • Tennessee Law Enforcement Executive Development Association • National Association of Chiefs of Police (Research Committee Member) • InfraGard Infrastructure Tennessee • Tennessee Association of Law Enforcement • Tennessee Cyber Security Task Force, a program targeting identity theft and child porn cases.

His continuing education and professional development include: Law Enforcement Management and Administration for Sheriffs and Police Chief's • Leadership and Team Building for Sheriff's, Police Chief's and Senior Level Officers • Tennessee Law Enforcement Executive Development Management Course (TLEED) • Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy • Emergency Response to Terrorism: Basic Concepts and Recognizing and Identifying Hazardous Materials, Emergency Program Manager • Emergency Preparedness USA • Radiological Emergency Management • Leadership and Influence • Decision Making and Problem Solving • Incident Command Certification in ICS 100, 200, 300, 400, and IS 700 and 800.

Robinette is actively involved in the community. His public and community service consists of: Troop 146 Boy Scouts of America (Committee Member and Leader) • Executive Board Member of 10th Judicial Drug Task Force • Executive Board Member with the Anti-Drug Coalition Across Tennessee and Grantee Partner • Past president and voting member of the Five Rivers Bank Security Council